

DC SUSTAINABLE
BUSINESS NETWORK

“Legal Ease”

May 22, 2006

LEGAL/REGULATORY DEVELOPMENTS AFFECTING THE "TRIPLE BOTTOM LINE"

FEDERAL

Senate Backs Guest-Worker Curbs

On May 17, the Senate narrowly approved an amendment to the immigration legislation declaring that illegal immigrants seeking a guest-worker permit could not petition for legalization on their own, but instead must be sponsored by an employer. For more information, visit http://www.washingtonpost.com/wp-dyn/content/article/2006/05/17/AR2006051700239_pf.html

MARYLAND

Maryland Government Makes Power Moves

In the face of rising power costs, Maryland government will spend $100,00 to install a solar energy system in Annapolis office building. For more information, visit <http://baltimore.bizjournals.com/baltimore/stories/2006/05/15/daily19.html?surround=lfm>

Former Old Mutual Employee Pleads Guilty to Fraud

Former employee obtained over $700,000 by misrepresentation to bank. For more information, visit <http://baltimore.bizjournals.com/baltimore/stories/2006/05/15/daily28.html?surround=lfm>

New Leads: Technology Entrepreneur to Lead Maryland Business Council

Jason Hardebeck, ex-DBED official, was appointed to serve as the new Executive Director of the Maryland Business Council. For more information, visit <http://baltimore.bizjournals.com/baltimore/stories/2006/05/15/daily17.html?surround=lfm>

McDermott Will & Emery LLP is providing periodic updates on legal and regulatory issues affecting the triple bottom line as a public service to DCSBN's membership. DCSBN appreciates MWE's generous contribution of time and resources in bringing this helpful resource to the DCSBN community.
